Opportunity for Experienced Attorneys to Mentor Law Students

In conjunction with UNLV William S. Boyd School of Law and Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada

The Partners in Pro Bono program matches experienced volunteer attorneys and law students to work together on a new pro bono case.

In this program, attorney mentors benefit from the law student's assistance and are expected to involve the law student in all aspects of the case. Law students benefit from the attorney's mentorship and have an opportunity to work on a case.

Attorneys may take cases in the following areas:

- Family Law (divorce, custody, guardianship, and adoption)
- General Civil/Consumer Fraud
- Bankruptcy
- Probate
- Appeals
- Federal
