of Southern Nevada

Responding to the Needs of Afghan Evacuees: Introduction to Asylum

Sponsored by Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada

When: Tuesday, January 18, 2022 9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Where: Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada (VIA WEBINAR)
725 East Charleston Blvd., Las Vegas, NV

Cost: FREE! All attorneys must take ONE new pro bono immigration case. Select a case at www.lacsnprobono.org.

What: In the wake of the Afghanistan evacuation in August 2021, over 100 Afghan families will be settling into life in Nevada and are in need of representation in their asylum cases. This training will give pro bono attorneys the tools to represent Afghan evacuees in asylum cases. It will cover asylum law and procedure, cultural competency, and the practical aspects of an asylum case. After the training, pro bono attorneys will have access to sample pleadings, a mentor, and additional trainings as they work through the case(s).

Speakers: Ebru Cetin, Family Justice Project Immigration Attorney, Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada
Michael Kagan, Esq., Director of the UNLV Immigration Clinic
